

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. We are dependent on media for our information...they are subsidized by taxpayers because of the importance of information in a free society. Surely they are obligated to stay out of politics. I am outraged that this broadcast would be allowed, especially at this time.

Perhaps Fahrenheit 9/11 should be required to be shown by the same stations airing an anti-Kerry documentary!
